Welcome to Reno Rescue, Inc. SUMMER CAMP 2020

CAMP 101

July 13 – July 17

8:30 am – 1:00 pm

Campers at Camp 101 will learn how to load and unload a horse for a “trip”, what to pack to travel safely with a horse, how to clean and maintain their tack as well as how to independently tack up a horse for riding,
how to maintain a horse and its stall,
and of course, how to mount, dismount, and ride a horse!

We are looking forward to a week full of sunshine, horses, smiles, and fun!

GENERAL CAMP GUIDELINES

These guidelines apply to any and all participants of Reno Rescue, Inc.

Facility Protocols, Rules and Guidelines

1. No dogs allowed during any program or event.
2. Be respectful towards both human and equine participants.
3. Dress appropriately. Remember that you will be outside in the weather for several hours, will be walking in loose and potentially deep footing, and may be running for short periods.
 - a. Close toed shoes, ie: boots
 - b. No revealing or inappropriate clothing
 - c. Do not wear dangly jewelry or strong perfumes
4. Bring your own food and beverage.
5. No obscene language.
6. Be on time.
7. No cell phones.
8. Respect Reno Rescue's facilities and equipment.

Treat Policy

Bringing Treats for the Horses: If you would like to bring a treat, be aware that some horses have dietary restrictions and may not be able to eat it - it's not personal! Ask before you give any horse a treat. NEVER hand feed the horses!! This trains them to get pushy and sometimes to bite. Treats can go in feeders or buckets after their lesson has finished. Please check with instructor before giving any treats.

GLOSSARY OF COMMON TERMS

From: Dictionary of Equine Terms, Compiled by New Horizons Equine Education Center, ©1998

Groom: to clean the coat and feet of a horse

Horse: the general term for an equine animal, whether he be a stallion, mare, or gelding

Stallion: a mature male horse that has not been castrated

Gelding: a male horse that has had his testicles removed

Mare: a mature female horse four years or older

Foal: a young horse of either sex; less than 12 months of age

Colt: a young male horse under 3 years of age

Filly: a young female horse under 3 years of age

Pony: a horse of any small breed that stands 14.2 hands or less at maturity

Hand: the unit by which the height of a horse is measured; equals four inches; height is measured from the withers to the ground

Track Left: counterclockwise movement in an arena so that the left leg is on the inside

Track Right: clockwise movement in an arena so that the right leg is on the inside.

Change Rein: to change the leading leg at the canter or lope

Half Halt: a movement that changes the horse's balance by a shift of the weight of the horse from the forehand to the quarters or hindquarters

Halt: a dressage term meaning to stop the horse

Gait: sequence of foot movements such as walk or trot; a particular way of going, either natural or acquired, that is characterized by a distinctive rhythmic movement of the feet and legs

Walk: a natural, slow gait of four beats in which each foot strikes the ground in separate intervals in the following sequence: near hind, near fore, off hind, off fore; the walk should be free moving, even and flat footed

Trot: a natural, two-beat gait in which the front foot and the opposite hind foot take off together and strike the ground together; a natural gait in which the tracks of the hind legs fall directly in the tracks of the forefeet

Canter: a slow, restrained gallop or run; a three-beat gait in which the two diagonal legs are paired, thereby producing a single beat that falls between the successive beats of the other unpaired legs.

Gallop: a four-beat gait resembling the canter, but the diagonal pair breaks, creating four beats; a more ground-covering gait than the canter.

Lope: a slow to medium-fast collected canter exhibited in western classes; a three-beat gait with an initiating hind leg followed by a diagonal pair (including the leading hind leg) and finally by the leading foreleg

Lameness: an abnormality of gait or movement

Sound: free from any abnormal deviation in structure or function that interferes with the usefulness of the horse; physically fit and shows no signs of weakness or illness
